Approval Given Antioch Sewage Disposal Plant

State Sanitary Engineers
Okay $3,000 Improvement Here

Approval of Antioch's $3,000 improvement of its sewage disposal plant has been given by engineers of the State Sanitary Water Board, Village Clerk R. L. Murrie announced this week. The work has been in progress for over a year.

Pursuant to recommendations handed to the village board after an inspection of the plant here by Engineers C. E. Schwob and L. E. Woodman in April, 1939, immediate steps were taken to carry out the recommendations of the state. Because the local sewage treatment works discharges its effluent into Sequoit creek, which is tributary to Lake Marie, where boating, bathing and other water sports are practiced during the summer months, it is necessary, the engineers said, that the degree of purification afforded by the local works be of the highest quality possible.

Make Tests Daily

By keeping daily records and tests with the new laboratory equipment the village will be in position to defend itself if at any time a downstream property owner were to bring suit against the village for pollution of the outlet stream, according to Village Clerk Murrie.

Specifically the recommendations of the state board included the removal of old sand and slush from the septic tanks and the addition of new to the depth of 5 inches; the installation of a chlorinator, and a new small building to house the laboratory equipment. It was necessary also for the village to purchase a small plot of ground adjoining the village property, to house part of the new equipment. The improvement also called for the laying of a water main to the plant to operate the chlorinator. This was accomplished by the laying of a 4-inch main line along Orchard street west about 350 feet and then a 1-inch line to the sewage plant.

Cost Paid in Full

The total cost of $3,087.88 broken down into the various items, of cost indicate that $1,300 was spent for removing old sand and laying new; purchase of land, $100.00; chlorinator, $751.90; concrete block building, $382.09; laying water main, $217.39; labor $36.50.

It is matter of gratification to the board and also to local taxpayers that the entire improvement was paid for in cash. The funds included a $1,100.00 balance left over from sewer improvement special assessments, and the remainder was paid out of profits from the water department.

Willkie To Win, Polls Indicate

Nationwide Trend Points
To Sweeping Republican Victory.

Wendell Willkie and Senator Charles McNary are riding the crest of a Republican trend that will take Mr. Willkie to the White House and will elect Senator McNary as the next Vice President of the United States.

This view is confirmed by all polls of recent weeks, including the Gallup poll, which have indicated a surge of voters to the Republican standard bearers, and wholesale desertions from the ranks of supporters of the New Deal Third Term candidate.

The indications are also that this trend against the New Deal will be further accelerated and reach overwhelming proportions by the time the voters go to the polling places on November 5 to cast their fateful ballots.

Most significant of all prognostications on the outcome of the election is probably that made by Emil Hurja, noted statistician, who was the political analyst for the Democratic National Committee, under the Chairmanship of Jim Farley, from 1932 to 1937, and who in 1933 predicted with uncanny accuracy that Roosevelt would carry all but two states in the last national election.

Mr. Hurja now predicts with equal positiveness that Wendell Willkie will win on November 5 by a majority of from 2,500,000 to 3,000,000 of the popular vote, carrying the electoral vote of the states in New England and the Eastern Seaboard, the Middle West and the farm belt, more

To the Editor:

Letters to this editor contain many a grain of sound common sense. Once to a while one reaches the point of genius. Of that kind there is an example in the Christian Science Monitor of last Monday, from a Natick, Mass., correspondent who signs himself—or herself—"A.B.O." It reads:

"IF A CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES PROMISED TO:

"Double the national debt;

"Reduce the value of the dollar;

"Plow under 25 per cent of the crops;

"Pay $5 for each pig not raised;

"Create class hatred;

"Screw business into cutting down, thereby continuing unemployment and endangering everyone's job;

"Attempt to pack the supreme court;

"Try to make over the country into a one-man government;

"Set on example of evading laws;

"Ignore his party platform;

"WOULD HE GET YOUR VOTE?"

First Draftees In Antioch Area Are Announced

"Master List" of Order
Numbers Is Subject to Revision

In all local draft districts, the "master" list of "order numbers" is subject to considerable revision before a registrant can determine his local order number. It has been pointed out by Washington just as the names of the first Lake county draftees have become known here.

For example, it is explained, whenever a serial number drawn in the national lottery is higher than a local district's draft registration, it will be disregarded entirely in that district. The order number assigned that serial number in the "master" list will go to the next serial number drawn which does not exceed the district's total registration.

Registrants may secure their exact order number by examining lists now being prepared for posting by their local draft boards. Lake county's highest number is about 4100.

Some of the first numbers drawn in the Antioch region (Lake County Area No. 3) are the following:

Lake County High Schools to Stage Educational Revue

Antioch High Will Aid in Presentation Nov. 13-14
in Waukegan

Antioch Township High school is among the eight Lake county public high schools that will assist in presenting the educational revue, "On Our Way," in the Waukegan Township High school gymnasium Wednesday and Thursday evenings, Nov. 13 and 14, at 8 p. m.

The other high schools taking part are Lake Forest, Highland Park, Zion-Benton, Warren, Libertyville, Grant and Waukegan.

The revue is adapted from "The Purpose of Education in American Democracy." It is being presented during American Education Week, Nov. 11 to 16, to show the citizens of Lake county what the high schools are doing in a practical way to fit the young people for life and their responsibilities as citizens. The production is on a non-profit basis. Any surplus resulting will be used by the various schools in carrying on their program of education.

The cast which is to present the revue will consist of 500 students and teachers from the co-operating schools. It is highly entertaining, but it is also an object lesson in the real purpose and objectives of the public high school. In the production are stressed the objectives of self-realization, human relationship, economic efficiency, and civic responsibility; four of the cardinal objectives of high school education.

The revue consists of dialogue, acting, singing, dancing, and dramatic sketches. Both tap and ballet dances are included in the show.

Antioch Has Farm Scene

Each school has been assigned one or more parts of the production and each is furnishing teachers also students for the singing chorus, for the orchestra and for assisting in the publicity, ticket sales, and other parts of the project. Antioch High is staging the Farm scene; Libertyville, a Tenement scene; Lake Forest, Workmen; also Grandad, Sally, and Friends; Warren, a Home Planning class; Grant, an Elementary school; Zion-Benton, a Drama class; Highland Park, the Christmas scene; and the principals in the Patriotic Finale. Waukegan is taking charge of the other scenes, "On Our Way to School," "When the Last Bell Rings," "You Can't Change the Course of Love," "Dear Little Girl," "Pay and Bob," "Let Me Introduce You," and "Our Dreams Will All Come True."

Approximately 900 reserved seat tickets will be available each night, and these are to be divided among the eight schools according to the student population. All the patrons of the schools from other communities will be given preference in the distribution of the reserve seat tickets.

Miss Elyse Rinkenberger, dramatic coach of Highland Park High school, is to direct the Patriotic Finale as well as the Christmas scene. She plans to include in the Christmas scene and Finale approximately 100 public speaking students from Highland Park for the choral responses. All the rest of the cast are also being worked into the Finale. In all, the cast will include 500 to 600, and there will be another hundred or more engaged in other activities, such as ushering, guards, publicity work, etc. A poster contest open to all students of Antioch Township High school is being conducted by Mrs. Bennett Wyllie. First, second and third prizes will be offered for the best poster submitted. Miss Isabel Larimer is assisting Mrs. Wyllie in the poster contest.

NO THIRD TERM!

Get Rid of the Kelly-Nash Machine

Get rid of the Kelly-Nash political machine. Dwight H. Green, candidate for Governor, and Justus L. Johnson, candidate for Secretary of State, on the Republican ticket, have made a valiant fight against the Kelly-Nash political machine. Voters should especially give heed to the office of Governor and Secretary of State in order to destroy the Kelly-Nash machine. This organization uses statewide patronage to take care of the payrollers, but the most potent influence is exercised on the law-making body.

Programs and policies of state government and appropriations are made in the Legislature. The state election machinery is in the office of the secretary. Favored position on the ballot means a great deal to candidates in the Primary. In this way, the Kelly-Nash machine has been able to keep its preferred Legislators in office. After the selection of the leader on the Democratic side, their men get the key positions on the committees of the House.

To remove the Kelly-Nash machine from Illinois politics it is necessary to take from them the control of the election machinery. We think that this is important enough for us to urge the electorate to vote for Justus

L. Johnson, the Republican nominee for Secretary of State, when they are voting for Dwight H. Green for Governor. Taking away from this vicious machine their influence in these two state offices will about extinguish their control in the state outside of Chicago.

The Man Who Unmasked Roosevelt

President Roosevelt in the closing days of his campaign has been obliged to abandon the ridiculous pose which he first assumed in his radio address to the "job-holders" convention by which he was "drafted," and the candidate is revealed in his true colors—an office seeker—just an ordinary politician drumming up votes on the stump.

Smoking out this hypocrisy, on the part of the Third Term Candidate is credited to Wendell L. Willkie and must be counted as one of the G. O. P. candidate's chief triumphs and greatest contributions to the cause of free government.

From the date of the convention in July until just a few days ago the pious fraud upon the credulity of the people was maintained. Now the mask is off, and comes the sickening realization—the fake "draft" of Roosevelt has failed. The president's political speeches must be paid for like any other politician. The Third Term Candidate's change of pose is a tacit admission that the trips for the alleged inspection of national defense—paid for out of the federal treasury—were shams and humbugs, too. Completely thrown aside is the pretense of the third-term candidate that he would serve four more years only if the American people signified their desire by drafting him. As a matter of fact, which everybody knows, the so-called draft was a fake. Now the New Deal high command is in panic—they are in the terrifying shadow of approaching defeat.

Wouldn't it have been hot stuff, even for Roosevelt, to be successfully "drafted" for a third term? Roosevelt—the "conscientious objector," with befitting, almost maidenly modesty, pushing away the third term with one hand, and frantically grabbing for it with the other—will go down in history, and with him his "conscience" that came to his rescue lest he let his beloved and gullible public down in time of need.

Roosevelt and the whole New Deal crowd deserve to be defeated decisively. They will be. There is still Free America.

Once, I Could Vote, Too!

Once, like you, I was a free man! A Frenchman!

Politicians made speeches to me, too!

They spoke about our impregnable democracy.

They told me what they were doing to protect my standard of living and my working conditions.

They promised my family safety through preparedness.

BUT THEY WEREN'T HONEST WITH ME! THEY LET ME DOWN!

I found that out when I had to give up my job to go to war—at the same time that I found out you couldn't stop tanks with bodies, that you couldn't halt bombs or buy peace with promises.

Now they are holding trials to find out whose fault it was. But I know—

It was MY fault!

I voted for the easy way.

I voted for the beguiling voice.

I voted for the politician, not the man.

I was one of a nation of free men who did not prize freedom. Today I am not free.

I repeat, it was my fault. But it was I who paid the penalty. I, with my womenfolk and children! I, who THOUGHT I WAS PREPARED for war.

Free men of America, already you may be pledged to a conflict for which YOU KNOW YOU ARE NOT PREPARED.

Remember my mistake! Weigh the man against the politician before you vote.

Do not vote for a voice—VOTE FOR A MAN.

Do not vote for a politician—VOTE FOR A MAN WHO WORKED WITH HIS HANDS.

Do not vote for the easy way—VOTE FOR A MAN WHO CAME UP THE HARD WAY.

You'll say "FIRST BECAUSE IT'S FINEST!"

Mrs. Willkie Greets

Rowdies With Smile

Mrs. Wendell Willkie likes campaigning. It's fun, she says, and not half as fatiguing as she expected. Her first cross-country political campaign trip was "so interesting."

"The crowds are enormous and there's much interest in their faces — so much interest that it interests me to watch them," she said.

Rowdism, throwing of eggs and other things at the presidential candidate and his party, do not disturb Mrs. Willkie.

"There's been very little of it," she said. "On the whole, everyone has shown such enthusiasm. Of course, it is sad to see prejudices aroused to such an extent that people throw an egg at someone who has done nothing but smile at them."

No Farm Recovery Here

The major objective of the New Deal's foreign trade policy was to increase exports of American farm surplus. The dollar value of our agricultural exports, however, declined 9.2 per cent between the fiscal years 1932 and 1939. Non-agricultural exports, on the other hand, increased 90 per cent in dollar value during this period. Total exports increased in that period 51 per cent in dollar value. In terms of volume our agricultural exports declined 30 per cent between the fiscal years 1932 and 1939. The volume of our cotton exports declined 58 per cent; wheat and flour exports 15 per cent; cured pork 22 per cent, and lard 56 per cent.

Soy Bean

Though the soy bean was virtually unknown 25 years ago, about 57,000,000 bushels are now produced annually, providing jobs for 50,000 persons.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of French brocade satin, with a train and finger-tip veil, and carried a bouquet of huge white chrysanthemums. She was attended by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Robert W. Hughes, of Davenport, Iowa, as matron of honor, and Mrs. O. F. Wenzel of Chicago, sister of the bridegroom, as bridesmaid. Mrs. Hughes wore a gown of moss green cheney crepe, which was complemented by Mrs. Wenzel's dress of gold frosted crepe. Both carried bouquets of mixed chrysanthemums.

The bridegroom was attended by his brother George as best man. Another brother, Charles, and Robert W. Hughes, served as ushers.

Preceding the ceremony sorority songs and appropriate wedding music were played by Hans von Holweide of Antioch, the Lohengrin wedding march being used as the processional, and Mendelssohn's wedding march as a recessional. Sidney D. Hughes, a brother of the bride and a student at the Illinois Wesleyan School of Music, sang two selections, "I Love You Truly" and "At Dawning."

The church was beautifully decorated with chrysanthemums and other fall flowers.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors, at which Mrs. Roy L. Hughes of Peru and Mrs. Helen Heuser of McHenry served as hostesses. Miss Elizabeth Hughes and Mrs. Oliver Hughes of Antioch, and Mrs. William Peterson, Libertyville, consorts of the bride, were chosen to help serve the tea.

A six o'clock dinner was held at the Hughes home for the immediate families.

Following a trip to New Orleans via the Smoky Mountains in November, the couple will reside at 108 E. Prospect Street in Kenosha. Both are employed by the Soil Conservation Service, Mrs. Kalvelage in the Kenosha office as a stenographer, and Mr. Kalvelage in the District office at Cambridge as an agricultural engineering aid.

Mrs. Kalvelage is a graduate of the Antioch High School and of Illinois Wesleyan University. She is a member of Alpha Gamma Delta national social sorority. Mr. Kalvelage has attended the Aeronautical University in Chicago, and has taken courses at the University of Illinois.

OPEN EVENINGS BY APPOINTMENT

Radio Pastor to Be Speaker in Waukegan

The popular radio pastor of the "Little Brown Church of the Air," Dr. John Wesley Holland, will appear in person in Waukegan, on Sunday, Nov. 3. Dr. Holland will be guest speaker at 8 o'clock p. m., at the First Methodist Church, Clayton and Utica streets, at a special service sponsored by the Wesleyan Service Guild.

John Holland was born on a farm near Milton, Iowa, and as a boy he did the things a typical farm boy does, chores, work in the fields, and helped his father tend their herd of registered Shorthorn cattle. He went through grade school, then high school, then worked his way through Iowa Wesleyan College, by sawing wood for the college furnace. He had his theological training at Drew Theological Seminary, Madison, N. J., and at Garrett Biblical Institute, Evanston, Ill.

He was appointed WLS pastor in 1933, the first minister ever to hold such a position officially. His daily broadcasts over WLS as well as his "Little Brown Church" Services are heard by thousands of listeners who find his direct, sympathetic talks helpful and inspiring. His "Sermonettes" are printed in thirteen farm papers and are read by nearly four million readers. He is an easy man to talk to, pleasant and always friendly. He understands the everyday problems of everyday people, and is never too busy to talk to those who need advice or help in these troubled times.

The meeting Sunday will be open to the general public free of charge and everyone is invited to hear and personally meet this kindly, busy man who has made a hobby of talking with people, of trying to bring them hope, comfort and peace.

A silver offering will be taken which will be used for the philanthropic work of the organization which supports definite missionary projects both at home and abroad. The members of the Guild extend an invitation to friends and neighbors in the rural sections of the county to attend this program.

AMUSEMENTS

Rotnour Troupe to Stage "The New School Teacher"

As the season progresses for the J. B. Rotnour Players at Lake Villa School gymnasium, the crowds continue to improve. "The Boob" seemed to please the crowd more than any other play presented. Next week Monday evening will be presented "The New School Teacher," a play taken from life, overflowing with comedy and having a story that appeals to everyone.

Among the characters are a broad-minded, well-liked young minister; the new school teacher; the old caretaker; the usual gossip; two hillbilly characters; the man about town; the minister's younger brother, and others. Mr. Rotnour assures those planning to attend that the act introduced by Miss Powell and her Neon violin is worth the price of admission alone, as it is a novelty. Other vodvil will be staged by Jimmy Parsons and his laughing sax and Bob Gentry, the eccentric comedian.

Merchant free tickets may be secured from Lake Villa business concerns. Doors open at 7:30 o'clock, curtain at 8:15 sharp.

Clyde McCoy Coming to Kenosha Theatre

Clyde McCoy and his famous Sugar Blues Orchestra featured stage, screen and radio stars and recording artists will appear on the stage of the Kenosha theatre in Kenosha, Wis., for two matinee and two evening performances on Saturday, Nov. 2.

Clyde McCoy features with the band a grand array of stage talent including the Bennett Sisters, famous vocalists and dancers.

This gigantic stage attraction comes to the Kenosha theatre at absolutely no increase in admission prices.

A very gratifying audience greeted the pastor last Sunday at the morning service. More and more an increased interest is being manifest. New faces appear nearly every service. Six new members were received into the church and several others are in prospect. The pastor spoke on "God's Value of Man." The text was taken from the eighth Psalm, "What is man that Thou shouldst think of him, And the son of man that Thou shouldst care for him? Yet Thou hast made him a little lower than God, And hast crowned him with glory and honor." Three points were stressed: 1. The world needs new objective which puts a proper value on human life and includes moral values. 2. We need to remember that great physical power, either individually or nationally, is no evidence of real greatness. 3. We are a generation of idolaters; worshipping pleasure, position, wealth, and power; forgetting that God said, "Thou shalt have no other gods before me." Man is the crowning effort in God's creative genius, the creature upon which he places his highest value. Therefore man's highest aim should be to regain the image of his creator.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

By Edward C. Wayne

National Lottery for Peacetime Draft Holds Spotlight of Defense Program; Germany Changes Tactics in Air War; Tension in Far East Affairs Grows

(EDITOR'S NOTE—When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of the news analyst and not necessarily of this newspaper.)
(Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

Interest in the current draft program has led the government to place on display in the Washington office of the Selective Service board this first World War draft register. The register shows that the draft lottery began 9:16 a. m., Friday, July 20, 1917, and ended 16 hours and 46 minutes later, with the drawing of the 10,500th capsule. The same method is being used to determine the order in which men shall be called for the 1940 peacetime conscription program.

DEFENSE:

Numbers Called

To War Secretary Henry L. Stimson went the honor of selecting the first number in the national selective service lottery. President Roosevelt was to pick the first capsule out of the goldfish bowl that was used in the 1917 draft lottery, but graciously yielded to Stimson. The late Newton D. Baker, secretary of war under President Wilson, selected the first number in 1917.

Contracts

The industrial program of national defense entered its second phase. First was drafting and awarding of contracts. Billions of dollars worth of goods, from battleships to paper clips, were contracted for.

The job now is one of procurement, actual manufacture on the speed-up scale demanded by the Defense Commission in order to achieve the two-ocean navy and equip an army that will number close to 1,500,000 within a few months.

Chief bottleneck is machine tools, the machinery and gear necessary in the process of turning automobile shops into tank factories, and the mass production of warplanes and munitions. William S. Knudsen, head of the production division of the commission, said tool makers are swamped with orders, sold out a year in advance. President Roosevelt issued an order permitting seizure of tool machines being made for foreign countries, wherever the material is necessary in American defense.

Outside tools, however, the vast industrial capacity of the United States seemed to be taking both defense and expanding civilian orders in its stride toward record production figures. The climb in manufacturing indices since last spring still has left a margin of surplus in manpower, raw materials and money.

But despite the rise of various business statistics to new peaks since 1929, Wall Street security markets remained inert.

WAR AT NIGHT:

Tactics Change

England was emerging from almost three months of continual bombing with greater confidence in its ability to withstand whatever the Luftwaffe can deliver. As the stormy weather wore on and German planes were not halted by fog and freezing weather, British air leaders increased the fury of their own raids over France, Germany and Italy. Prime Minister Winston Churchill made bold to predict that by spring, 1941, with the help of American production, England will seize supremacy of the air.

The German air attack on London was reduced in one respect. Daylight raids were fewer and less violent. In the beginning Air Marshal Goering sent large formations in daylight raids. During this period the British scored heavily. Then the tactics shifted to single planes at varying heights. The German losses were reduced, but still remained high.

Now raids are confined largely to night. Bombers drop their packages from the stratosphere and scout for home. The result is that the Germans no longer can pick their targets, but bomb indiscriminately. However, the height of the German planes is too great for British anti-aircraft guns while defense planes are unable to climb into battle fast enough. German losses have dwindled. The English people have been told a new, fast-climbing plane soon will take the air in quantities.

Otherwise on the war front: France denied rumors in diplomatic circles that it would declare war on Britain in order to get better peace terms from Germany. The terms were said to give Alsace-Lorraine to Germany, Nice and Tunis to Italy, and provide for control of all other French colonies by a three-nation board. Vice Premier Laval conferred with Adolf Hitler and was said to favor the plan.

London revealed after several denials, that Adolf Hitler twice has tried to start his promised invasion of Britain. The British said that on September 16, German troops were loaded in barges along the French ports, but R.A.F. bombers attacked the boats so heavily the attempt was frustrated.

ROADS OF DESTINY:

Burma Road

For three years China has absorbed and dispersed the heaviest shocks that a superior Japanese army hurled against it. While European nations who considered themselves a nobler race have been subjugated, China has produced nothing to equal the treachery of the Fifth Column, costly errors of command, or the crimes and stupidity of European diplomacy.

For more than a year its sole avenue of supply from the outside world has been via Rangoon by ship, then by narrow gauge railroad across Burma to Lashio, thence over hundreds of miles of tortuous road through wild, malaria-infected countryside to Kunming, in China, where railroads again are available.

For three months Britain kept the road closed, as an act of appeasement to Japan. When Japan signed the alliance with Germany and Italy the road was reopened. But during those three months Japan seized control of near-by Indo-China from France and based airplanes within bombing distance of the Burma Road. Nightly the crude bridges are being blown to bits and rebuilt by thousands of coolies working in disregard of their lives.

Blue Danube

Famed in song and romance, the beautiful blue Danube has become a highway of conflict in Hitler's march to the east.

Germany was supposed to have agreed with Russia to limit its penetration of the Balkans to commercial ties. When Nazi legions were sent into Rumania to "instruct" King Michael's army, Russia apparently looked at the proceedings with sour face.

Heavy echelons of Soviet troops were sent along the Danube to create a military area. German troops lined the other bank. German submarines, knocked down and shipped by rail to Rumania, were floated down the Danube to its mouth in the Black sea. There a German naval base quickly grew up. The base is a definite threat to the main Russian fleet in those waters.

Previously Russian warships were protected by an understanding with Turkey, which controlled the Dardanelles, entrance to the Black sea. But the Germans have outflanked this fortification by land.

Just where Hitler's Balkan adventure is headed none seemed willing to prophesy. It may be only a diverting sortie toward the oil lines of Asia Minor, or it may be a full assault toward Suez. Rumor and retraction discussed alleged "demands" made by the Axis powers on Greece, Turkey, Yugoslavia and Bulgaria.

Joys of Childhood?

U. S. army guns, tanks and toy soldiers in miniature are the favorite of the current season's new crop of toys as far as Nick Tassalo, 6, is concerned. Nick is shown at the preview of the toy manufacturers' display in New York. A large percentage of the new toys for the coming Christmas season reflect the national defense program preparations.

POWER:

On the St. Lawrence

An agreement between the United States and Canada looking toward development of a hydroelectric system along the St. Lawrence river has been advocated by four Presidents but never achieved. The war need for greater power has brought about a start.

With the consent of the United States, Canada will take more water from the Niagara river to generate power for its defense industries. So as to maintain the level of the Great Lakes, waterways now flowing into the Albany river and Hudson bay will be diverted southward to the lakes.

The announcement immediately awoke echoes of the two-decade fight for a Great Lakes-to-the-Sea waterway. Existing navigation above Montreal is limited to 14 feet. Locks are sought to provide a 32-foot draft.

Farmers of the West favor the plan. It would permit ocean liners to dock at Great Lakes ports and load wheat. Advocates of public power look upon the proposal as providing cheap electricity.

Opposition comes chiefly from ports in the Gulf of Mexico and along the Atlantic, as well as trans-shippers of grain. On the Canadian side the same is true.

President Roosevelt has allotted $1,000,000 of special defense funds for a survey.

SABOTAGE:

Mr. Dies Again

A wave of fires and explosions in U. S. defense industries "like the recent Hercules powder blast in New Jersey," is predicted by Representative Dies (D., Texas), chairman of the house committee investigating un-American activities. He called attention to the fact that a former member of the German American Bund told his committee several weeks before the New Jersey disaster that it could be expected.

Dies said there are more than 250,000 alien agents in the United States and more than 5,000 in defense industrial plants in the Detroit area alone.

Meanwhile members of the same committee declared they have proof that Friedhelm Draeger, German consul in New York, has for six years been the actual head of the National Socialist party in the United States. They said the German diplomat has been "under observation for a long time" and is head of a vast ring of espionage, sabotage and propaganda.

It was revealed that Draeger's connections were linked up when a raid was made on the German Tourist Information Bureau and Trans-ocean Press, both in New York.

Far East Bloc

In Manila, Capt. Rulo Romero, a native Filipino, graduate of West Point and officer of the Fourteenth Engineers at Fort McKinley, was formally arrested and charged with plotting to sell confidential military papers to an unnamed foreign power. He was taken into custody in the basement of his home while alleged by photographing documents showing defense fortifications at the entrance to Manila bay. Two civilians accomplices were arrested. If American-born wife was sought.

Meanwhile a Japanese, who feigned insanity, was seized on the U. S. aircraft carrier Langley, at Olongapo. He was found when still in a wet bathing costume and apparently had swum from shore to the ship.

MISCELLANY:

President Roosevelt borrowed a dollar from Postmaster General Walker to buy $6 worth of the new defense stamps. The stamps were exhibited at the White House on the first day of sale, but when the President went to make a purchase for his collection he had only $5 in his pocket.

An attendance record was established in the national parks during the 1940 travel year. Visitors numbered 10,741,855, a million more than last year.

Willkie to Win.....

Mr. Hurja even goes further, declaring his belief in the possibility that Willkie may win by landslide proportions, securing a majority of from 5,000,000 to 8,000,000 of the popular vote. Says Mr. Hurja of the trend Republicanward: "This swinging of the political pendulum from the Democratic to the Republican side is noticeable in each of the eight geographical regions of the United States and it is sharply revealed in the reports of each of the several other polls now busy sampling opinion on a nation-wide scale. "The marked sweep of the pendulum Republicanward is the outstanding characteristic of the present campaign from a pollster's point of view. And the swing itself is occasioned by this fact: the percentage of voters who intend to change party allegiance this year is much higher, among those who voted for Roosevelt in 1936 than among those who voted for Alf Landon."

The Dunn Survey, compiled by Rogers C. Dunn, statistical analyst of New York, who has been engaged in making polls of political trends for the past six years, fully forecasts that Wendell Willkie will win 27 States, with a total of 331 electoral votes or 68 more than the 266 required.

Said Mr. Dunn: "Should the trend toward Mr. Willkie continue, as is believed to be likely, the outcome of this election by States is expected to be similar to the pattern of the Presidential election of 1920, when the Republican candidate received 404 electoral votes."

Startling are the results of polls made by the New York Daily News, a pro-Roosevelt newspaper, which has Willkie leading in a state-wide poll of pivotal New York State with 50.6 per cent of the vote to the Third Term candidate's 49.4 per cent. This is the first time in the history of the Daily News forecasts, which have been very accurate in previous elections, that have shown the Republican Presidential nominee leading in the state.

Newspaper polls taken in Illinois, Ohio and other states also show Willkie leading and all indicate the marked Republican trend.

But polls are really not needed to substantiate the marked swing to the Republican ticket. It is evidenced by the steadily mounting enthusiasm of Republicans in every State, the tremendous receptions Mr. Willkie, Senator McNary and other Republican candidates and speakers have received wherever they have appeared and the growing realization by the electorate that the decision to be rendered on November 5 is literally to determine the future of the Republic.

Two Are Injured When Cars Collide At Intersection

Clayton O'Haver, employee of the Jefferson Ice company, had his right knee-cap broken, and Lester Siedschlag, farmer living in Burton township, in McHenry county, was badly cut and bruised Saturday morning when the cars the two were driving collided at an intersection of a cross road and Route 173 a mile west of the county line. O'Haver was driving west on 173, when Siedschlag started across the road from the south when the collision occurred. Both cars were badly wrecked, and the men are indeed lucky to have escaped with only slight injuries.

Robert Jensen is recuperating from a heart attack suffered Monday morning. He was seized with the attack while working on a dredging machine, with James Stearns at Lake Marie, Stearns immediately brought him to Antioch where treatment was administered by Dr. A. N. Herke. Jensen was ordered to bed until he recovers.

The Antioch Rescue Squad was called to the State Line road and Deep Lake road intersection Sunday when an automobile skidded on a gravelled curve and overturned. The three occupants of the car were bruised and shaken. Members of the rescue squad helped to right the car, and the occupants were taken to Dr. D. N. Deering of Antioch for treatment.

Jane Vos, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Vos, sustained an injured knee in a fall from her bicycle Sunday. X-ray examinations made at St. Therese's hospital in Wankegan Tuesday evening revealed that a blood clot had formed behind the knee cap but that no bones had been broken. She is expected to recover within a few days.

Robert R. Brown, 38, of Chicago, is recovering from an accidentally inflicted wound in the hip from a .22 caliber target pistol that discharged as he was getting into his automobile Sunday after hunting for ducks at Loon lake. He was treated by Dr. A. N. Berke of Antioch and the bullet was removed at St. Therese hospital.
